

MISSION & OBJECTIVES - CULTURE BUILDS TUSCALOOSA COUNTY

To develop a comprehensive creative community and cultural development plan and implementation process that will enhance the cultural life and livability of Tuscaloosa County and that will directly stimulate and contribute to the economic development and vitality of the community.

OBJECTIVES

To identify and build on the rich, diverse cultural resources and assets of Tuscaloosa County.

To expand cultural, entertainment, educational and recreational assets and amenities with the goal of creating a 'cultural destination' center in Alabama.

To encourage and stimulate a comprehensive, integrated cultural development initiative that fosters cooperative and collaborative efforts among the public, private, educational and non-profit sectors of the metro Tuscaloosa community.

To assess, identify and foster cultural programming that meets the needs of a diverse population and expands access and opportunities for all citizens and visitors to the area.

To identify, leverage and integrate cultural resources that will directly enhance the economic competitiveness and livability of the community, resulting in the aggressive recruitment of financial and human capital.

To identify opportunities for expansion, enhancement or development of cultural and entertainment facilities, programs, venues and events.

To connect, engage and foster the creative community concept in partnership with the creative campus initiative of The University of Alabama.
